NIGHT PART-TIME COURSES

Beginning Monday, October 5, 1931

Ending Friday, May 27, 1932

During the school year, from 7 to 9 every night, except Saturdays and Sundays, the University offers special courses in college subjects. Two hours each week are given in each subject (except Philosophy) for two semesters, making a total of four semester hours, or two year hours, of credit for each subject. Philosophy is given four times a week for two semesters, making a total credit of eight semester hours, or four year hours. A student must limit the number of subjects taken by the leisure he has for home study. The schedule elected should be approved by the Dean.

SATURDAY PART-TIME COURSES

Beginning Saturday, October 3, 1931

Ending Saturday, May 28, 1932

On Saturdays, from 9 to 12, college courses are offered throughout the year. Two semester hours, or one year hour, of credit can be gained in each subject, and three subjects may be chosen.

GRADUATE COURSES

Graduate work will be offered on Saturday mornings only, from 9 to 12, in the following subjects:

1-2 English. Newman and his influence. This course includes a study of the philosophy of the principal writers of the Victorian age, with emphasis on Newman.

Fr. O'Connor.

3-4 History. Problems in American History.

Fr. W. Burk.

REGISTRATION

A student, to gain college credit in the Part-Time Courses, must register in the same manner as other college students. The same entrance units are required and the official credits must have been approved and be on file in the Registrar's office. Students should present their credentials when they apply for admission to the Part-Time Courses.

The time for registration will be:

For Night Part-Time Courses: October 1, 2, 3, 7-9 P. M.

For Saturday Part-Time Courses: September 26, from 9:30-12:30, 2-4.

FEES

All students are charged the usual yearly registration fee of $5.00 for the Part-Time Courses.

The tuition for the Saturday Courses is $20.00.

The tuition for the Night Courses is as follows:

For the first course of two hours a week, $20.00; each additional course of two hours a week carries a fee of $10.00, up to $50.00, which is the maximum fee.

No student may change a course or withdraw from a course without the approval of the Dean. Unless this approval has been obtained, no refund whatsoever will be made for withdrawal from any course.

For further information, address the Director of Part-Time Courses, or the Registrar.

During the school year, from 7 to 9 every night, except Saturdays and Sundays, the University offers special courses in college subjects. Two hours each week are given in each subject (except Philosophy) for two semesters, making a total of four semester hours, or two year hours, of credit for each subject. Philosophy is given four times a week for two semesters, making a total credit of eight semester hours, or four year hours. A student must limit the number of subjects taken by the leisure he has for home study. The schedule elected should be approved by the Dean.

SATURDAY PART-TIME COURSES

Beginning Saturday, October 8, 1932

Ending Saturday, May 27, 1933

On Saturdays, from 9 to 12, college courses are offered throughout the year. Two semester hours, or one year hour, of credit can be gained in each subject, and three subjects may be chosen.

GRADUATE COURSES

Graduate work will be offered on Saturday mornings only, from 8 to 12, in the following subjects:

English.

The Romantic Movement in English Literature. The philosophy of Rousseau: its derivation and its spread. The French Revolution: the main ideas incorporated in this movement and its influence on literature. The Chief English Writers of the Movement: Wordsworth, Shelley, Keats, Byron. Their chief political, ethical, and religious ideas as seen in their works.

Fr. O'Connor.

History. The Age of Louis XIV.

Mr. Doyle

REGISTRATION

A student, to gain college credit in the Part-Time Courses, must register in the same manner as other college students. The same entrance units are required and the official credits must have been approved and be on file in the Registrar's office. Students should present their credentials when they apply for admission to the Part-Time Courses.

The time for registration will be:

For Night Part-Time Courses: October 6 and 7, 7-9 P. M.

For Saturday Part-Time Courses: October 1, from 9:30-12:30, 2-4.

FEES

All students are charged the usual yearly registration fee of $5.00 for the Part-Time Courses.

The tuition for the Saturday Courses is $20.00.

The tuition for the Night Courses is as follows:

For the first course of two hours a week, $20.00; each additional course of two hours a week carries a fee of $10.00, up to $50.00, which is the maximum fee.

No student may change a course or withdraw from a course without the approval of the Dean. Unless this approval has been obtained, no refund whatsoever will be made for withdrawal from any course.

For further information, address the Director of Part-Time Courses, or the Registrar.
